

St. Michaels University School

Outstanding preparation for higher learning and for life.

St. Michaels University School is one of Canada's leading co-educational, independent day and boarding schools. Our boarding students come from 20 countries; our graduates attend the top universities, the majority of them on scholarships; and our outstanding teaching faculty has been recognized by numerous awards.

SMUS is currently implementing a strategic plan involving facility redevelopment, endowment growth, and excellence in our academic and extra-curricular programmes.

The school pursues academic success in an environment where the character and self also grow. Students participate in a full programme of arts, athletics, extracurricular activities and service, in which teachers are expected to play a role.

Applicants must be eligible to teach in British Columbia. For each position, applicants are requested to supply a resume with references, accompanied by a cover letter outlining the candidate's particular strengths and how the candidate is well-suited to teaching in a rich academic programme with a high proportion of gifted students.

Please respond on or prior to Tuesday, February 9, 2010 to:
