

St. Michaels University School is one of Canada's leading co-educational, independent day and boarding schools. Our boarding students come from 20 countries; our graduates attend the top universities, the majority of them on scholarships; and our outstanding teaching faculty has been recognized by numerous awards.

SMUS is currently implementing a strategic plan involving facility redevelopment, endowment growth, and excellence in our academic and extra-curricular programmes.

The school pursues academic success in an environment where the character and self also grow. Students participate in a full programme of arts, athletics, extracurricular activities and service, in which teachers are expected to play a role.

TEACHING OPPORTUNITY

SENIOR SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY (PART-TIME POSITION)

The successful candidate will have experience teaching Geography in grades 9 to 12, AP Human Geography or equivalent courses, and a proven ability with a student body that includes a high proportion of gifted students.

Qualifications:

- Degree in Geography;
- Proven track record in applying geo-technologies in the classroom;
- Experience integrating fieldwork into the curriculum;
